

SAMUEL'S GORGE
MCLAREN VALE AUSTRALIA

GRACIANO

2019

THE REAL REVIEW

Nick Butler

93 pts

Indigo-purple colour in the glass. Lovely lifted violets and mocha with oak-spice and red licorice. It's slinky and finely-structured, albeit with regional richness. Dark cherries and skin-spice. Classy and long.

2018

THE WINE FRONT

Campbell Mattinson

Beauty. As much McLaren Vale as it is Graciano in that it's sizable and plush. It also shows a great deal of oak. But it's silken, berried tipped with exotic woody spicy notes and seductive at every turn.

