James Suckling

This showcases violets, dried lavender, vanilla and spices. Full body, chewy tannins and plenty of soft fruit. Drink now.

GOURMET TRAVELLER WINE

November/December 2018

A character-filled red wine all about blackberry, dark cherry and richness. Big, generously flavoured with abundant ripe tannins in good balance with the fruit, the aftertaste long-lasting.

HALLIDAY WINE COMPANION

Jane Faulkner

A whorl of dark cherries and spices meet more meaty, earthy flavours across the racy palate. It's on the shy-side of medium-bodied with stealth like tannins kicking in at the end but so does the acidity and minerally thread bringing everything together neatly.

THE REAL REVIEW

Huon Hooke

*Medium to full red colour with a trace of purple. The bouquet is all about sweet blackberries, dark cherries and rich flavour. A big, generously flavoured wine, with abundant ripe tannins in good balance and a long carry. An excellent, impressive, character-filled red.
